May 19th, 2020 - News networks are facing a new challenge in Qatar. Al Jazeera is one of the most influential news networks in the world, and it is facing backlash from the Western media. The network's coverage of the Gulf crisis has been called into question, with critics accusing it of bias and propaganda. The network's website and broader media network are currently under threat. Al Jazeera's English language network is facing a new challenge with the rise of al-Jazeera America. The network's English language content and frame of reference are different from its Arabic broadcasts. The network's coverage of the US-Al Qaeda conflict is being discussed in a new article. The network's Arabic broadcasts are not meeting the same standards in recent years. The network's headquarters are located in Doha, Qatar.
